Re: Steven Reyes Juarez v. NYCL Acquisition LLC, New York Cause Lines, Inc., and New York Water Taxi, LLC
Case No.: 23 Civ. 09103 (JGLC)

Your Honor,

Our office represents Plaintiff, Steven Reyes Juarez, in the above-referenced maritime action. We write now to respectfully request a brief one (1) week extension of time to file Plaintiff's dispositive motion, from April 19, 2025 to April 25, 2025.

The reason for this application is that our principal attorney on this matter, Erica Meyer, Esq., unexpectedly commenced maternity leave earlier than anticipated. Consequently, I have assumed numerous additional cases, which has created a temporary backlog in our workflow and necessitates a short extension to finalize Plaintiff's motion.

Defendants take no position as to Plaintiff's request for extension. If the Court grants Plaintiff's request, Defendants request that Plaintiff's opposition deadline be extended by one (1) week, from May 16, 2025 to May 23, 2025, and that any reply be extended from May 16, 2025 to May 30, 2025, so that both motions are fully briefed on the same date and in advance of the June mediation. Plaintiff consents to this request.

We thank the court for its time and consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Jon L. Norinsberg, Esq.
